FBI Conducting Investigation of USW Violence

Faction Headed By Rarick Reports 'Reign of Terror'

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—An FBI investigation is reported under way today into convention session violence between factions vying for control of the million-member United Steelworkers Union.

One faction complained to the Labor Department in Washington that "a reign of terror" at the convention made even elementary Democratic processes impossible. It said it received a reply Wednesday night the matter had been referred to the Justice Department for an FBI probe.

Headed By Rarick

This faction, headed by Donald C. Rarick, McKeesport, Pa., contender for the top union post held by President David J. McDonald, blamed two convention beatings incidents on McDonald "goons."

But McDonald, calling Rarick "an absolute confounded liar," said he was deliberately playing "two-bit politics" to provoke trouble and attract attention.

Rarick claimed his "organization for membership rights" is seeking to restore democracy to the union and he said the convention is stacked with union payoffs loyal to McDonald.

Rarick was himself beaten Wednesday in a fracas near the Atlantic City convention hall as a man identified as George Elliott, a Bessemer, Ala., union staff representative, got a bloodied nose.

Scores of delegates to the convention pushed and shoved around the participants. Many were floored before order was restored.

Rarick Supporter Beaten

In a similar incident, a Rarick supporter was beaten at the convention hall Monday. Both sides blamed the other for starting the trouble and there seemed no way to ascertain which was right.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, whose department enforces the union member democracy guarantees of the Landrum-Griffin law, under which it is possible to void convention proceedings found to be illegal, was waiting to deliver a speech when Wednesday's fighting broke out.

Mitchell said later he couldn't tell whose fault it was, but "it's very unfortunate in a Democratic union such as this that acts of violence take place."

Four years ago Rarick got about a third of the membership vote against McDonald, but claimed he was "counted out" and had actually won.

Ohioan Kills Wife, Other Woman, Self

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—An angered husband blasted his estranged wife and another woman to death with a sawed-off pump shotgun early today in the Marine Room Restaurant downtown. Then the slayer killed himself.

Police identified the man as Clyde M. Williams and his victims as Dorothy Blosser Williams, about 25, and Miss Sally Brown, both employees at the place. All were Akron residents.

About a half dozen customers at the bar ran for the exit or dived under tables when the shooting began. Homicide detectives were questioning some of these witnesses to piece together details.

According to the first version police obtained, Williams had been in the bar about two hours, then went to his car and got the gun because he was angered and jealous over remarks made by his estranged wife, an attractive blonde, who was working behind the bar. She had been employed there for three months.

Miss Brown, also a barmaid, was not on duty at the time of the shooting. Whether Williams' shot hit her accidentally or intentionally was not immediately determined.

Fugitive Sought In Coors Murder

Boasted to Pals of Being on 'Big Job'

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Millionaire Adolph Coors III was kidnapped, shot twice in the back and his body thrown on a mountain trash dump by an abductor who demanded a half million dollars in ransom.

A report released by the FBI late Wednesday hinted that Coors, 44, was dead by the time a type-written note demanding the $500,000 for his return was delivered to his family. No final contact was made with the kidnaper, however.

The FBI made public the report in announcing its withdrawal from the case, which began with Coors' disappearance Feb. 9.

Director J. Edgar Hoover said in Washington no federal statutes apparently were involved. He said the FBI is continuing its search for Joseph Corbett Jr., 31, as a fugitive from justice.

Corbett lived here for 3½ years after escaping from a California prison where he was serving a sentence for murder. The FBI never has linked him officially with the Coors case.

But Wednesday it disclosed Corbett:

Boasted to associates before Coors' disappearance that "I'm carrying out one big job which will get me between a half and one million dollars. I've been planning it for more than two years now, and when I pull it off I'm going to take off for some other country."

Withdrawal of Guinea, Ghana Troops Asked

Mobutu Threatens To Act If U.N. Fails To Remove Soldiers

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Congo strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu has put forth a veiled threat to take action unless the U. N. command withdraws troops of Ghana and Guinea.

The youthful military ruler charged these African troops, who have been protecting deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba, with meddling in Congo internal affairs.

Mobutu Issues Warning

Mobutu warned that if the Ghanaian and Guinean troops are not pulled out of the Congo "it will become a problem for our general staff." He did not elaborate.

Ghana has about 2,500 troops in the U. N. task force, Guinea about 600.

(Ghanaian President Kwame Nkrumah said on arrival in New York Wednesday night for the U. N. General Assembly that he had not heard of Mobutu's demand. Nkrumah emphasized that he still regarded Lumumba as the legitimate premier of the Congo).

Mobutu who proclaimed a form of military rule a week ago, has been frustrated by Guinea and Ghanaian forces from taking Lumumba into custody.

U. N. officials apparently feel they would be open to Communist charges of partisanship if they allowed Lumumba to be turned over to Mobutu.

Lumumba Ran For Cover

When Mobutu announced he was "neutralizing" the politicians, Lumumba ran for cover and was believed to have been given refuge by the Guinea diplomatic mission.

Emerging from his hideout last weekend, Lumumba moved back into his old official residence behind a shield of Ghana troops and began issuing orders.

But Mobutu appeared in command, supported by the bulk of the Congolese army.

Lumumba was believed to have given up his attempt to get to New York to present his case to the U. N. General Assembly. A U. S. Embassy spokesman said Lumumba aides inquired three days ago about getting visas. They were told to submit their passports to the embassy but have not done so.

Khrushchev's balcony speech, the sort of performance that only he can put on, gave onlookers the impression that he had not the slightest doubt that the American people secretly adored him and, coast to coast, were yearning to set eyes upon him and clasp his hand.

Khrushchev, his companion in undiplomatic shenanigans, Cuba's Fidel Castro, emerge as men of the same stamp, however different their appearance and background. The picture they present is that of men wholly convinced they speak for "the people," and any who oppose them are "enemies of the people."

The going-ons in connection with this 15th U.N. Assembly session are giving perplexed Americans and the world important clues to the future and to what makes dictators tick.

The advance planning included special purchases from key manufacturers, especially for Dollar Days. Mr. Galetti said, in addition, a lot of merchandise has been grouped from regular stocks with good price reductions.

Bargains will be found in every cooperating store which will be identified by special Dollar Day pennants in store windows.

Additional clerks have been hired to accommodate the crowds that are expected.

The semi-annual Dollar Days have been sponsored for many years by the Retail Merchants Division of the Salem Chamber of Commerce.

A total of 27 highway projects, expected to cost some $24.4 million, are on the programming schedule for Columbiana County in the future, according to the Ohio Highway Department.

They include a $1.5 million Route 45 bypass south of Salem, a $4.5 million Route 7 bypass at Wellsville to Route 45, and two big projects near East Liverpool — the $5.7 million West End Freeway and a $1.4 million Route 30 northern extension through California Hollow north of East Liverpool.

Nixon Says Kennedy Supports Course Inviting 'Surrender'

ENROUTE WITH Nixon (AP) Nixon replied: "Absolutely not." Vice President Richard M. Nixon's attacks on his Democratic presidential rival sharpened today with the charge that Sen. John F. Kennedy unknowingly espouses a course inviting "surrender" or even war.

That summed up the final count-down on his effort to get this campaign missile off the ground in a day of speeches—and a news conference—which had newsmen puzzled about how hard he was hitting at his target.

The Republican nominee flies today to St. Joseph, Mo., before flying on to speeches in Illinois, at Sullivan and Rockford.

At Fort Wayne, Ind., Wednesday the vice president said that, in dealing with a man like Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, when you make a concession without getting one, "you work toward the cause of surrender."

This was in connection with Kennedy's remark that President Eisenhower might have voiced regrets to Khrushchev over the U2 spy plane incident in an effort to save last spring's Paris summit conference from collapse.

Nixon amplified his case later at Louisville by adding: "When you're dealing with a dictator you must never make concessions without getting something in return because that is not the road to peace. It is the road to surrender, or even to war."

Nixon backed away from the full implications of these speeches at a subsequent news conference in Springfield, Mo.

Asked if he meant to infer that Kennedy "is espousing a surrender policy for the Soviet Union,"

Mr. Kennedy didn't know what he was espousing.

He went on to say that Kennedy would oppose surrender to the Soviets "just as strongly as I would."

But, he said, "because of perhaps lack of understanding and experience he was naive in making a suggestion that I think would have led to exactly the thing that he would have been just as strongly against as I am."

The news conference followed a welcome to Springfield that, Nixon said, "indicates what is happening in Missouri" this election year.

The crowd surged around Nixon's open car, showering him with confetti.

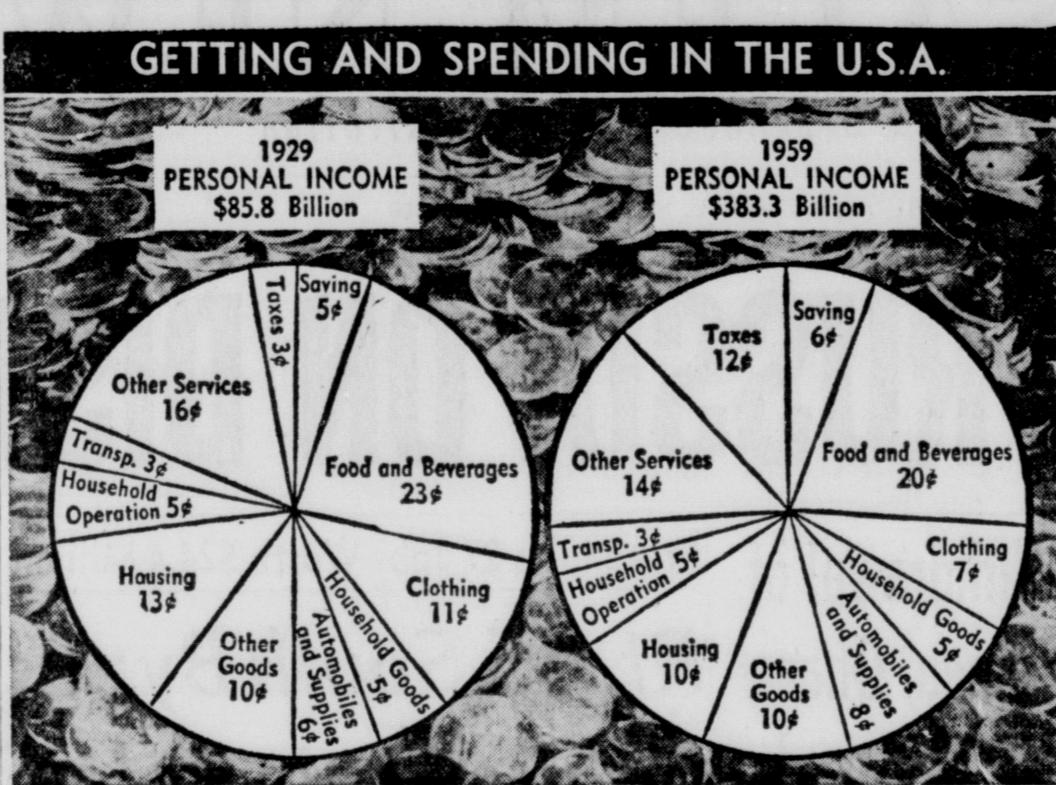

Sheriff Glenn Hendrix estimated 40,000 people at the airport, along the streets into town and at Nixon's hotel. He said 20,000 of them showed up for the candidate's speech at the county fair-grounds.

Man Escapes Serious Injury at Lisbon Plant

LISBON — Earl Joseph, E. Chestnut St., escaped serious injury, about 9:30 a.m. Wednesday when struck by a die ring on a sewer pipe press at the American Vitrified Products Co. plant east of town.

Supt. Clayton Hunter took him to a Salem hospital where he was treated for a bruised leg and laceration of the hand.

Joseph was in a four-man crew working the press. The die ring broke and "brushed" Joseph as it fell.

THE PERSONAL INCOME DOLLAR — Comparison between how Americans spend a dollar today and how we spent it 30 years ago reveals some surprising facts. We're spending less out of each dollar today for food, clothing and shelter and most services. (The total number of dollars is higher, however, because we have more dollars to spend.) Spending for transportation and household goods is the same. Only taxes and automobile costs are proportionately higher than in 1929. Data from Morgan Guarantee Trust Co.

Murder Charge Against Ohioan Is Dropped

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Richard E. Dirlam, accused of supplying the gun used to kill a Jacksonville tavern owner, no longer faces a murder charge but is still in jail.

The charge against the 21-year-old former Ohioan was changed Wednesday from murder to accession to murder. Bond was set at $2,000 but he didn't post it.

Police said Dirlam admitted he gave a gun to Ernest J. Thomas, 34, and later threw it away. Dirlam has refused to testify before a grand jury unless granted immunity from prosecution.

The Florida Supreme Court denied Dirlam his freedom on a writ of habeas corpus.

Thomas is in jail on a murder charge. Police said Thomas admitted shooting Walter F. Stepiak, 49, early Aug. 21 outside Stepiak's tavern.

CAVEIN CRUSHES MAN

CLEVELAND (AP) — A sewer line ditch caved in Wednesday night crushing David Couchman, 22, of Tallmadge to death under a half ton of rocks, rubble and dirt. Twenty Brecksville firemen worked more than two hours to recover the body.

Hugh Dennis Ward, 17, of East Liverpool, was fined $10 for recklessness operation, and his license was suspended until he receives a release from the Ohio Power Co.

Mark A. Arnold, 16, of 537 E. Washington St., Lisbon, cited for operating an unsafe vehicle, was ordered to have the car fixed or get rid of it.

Juvenile Drivers Receive Penalties

LISBON — Daniel Ulizio Jr., 17, Midland, Pa., lost the right to drive for six months at a juvenile traffic hearing this week in the courthouse. He was cited for failure to stop after a traffic accident in East Liverpool.

The court also fined him $25 and ordered him to pay the damage.

Licenses of six other teen-age drivers were suspended for varying periods:

Jan Allen Halverstadt, 17, RD 3, Lisbon, failure to yield right of way, 30 days; Theodore F. Thorne, 16, of 321 3rd St., Salem, reckless operation, 30 days; Fred E. Weingart, 17, RD 4, Salem, same; Charles E. Greenfield, 17, of 849 E. 3rd St., Salem, same;

Richard G. Yarwood, 17, Winona, speeding, 15 days; Clifford A. Craven, 16, RD 2, Beloit, same.

Hugh Dennis Ward, 17, of East Liverpool, was fined $10 for recklessness operation, and his license was suspended until he receives a release from the Ohio Power Co.

New Office Being Built In Lisbon Village Hall

LISBON — Construction in Village Hall of a new water department office which will serve as a meeting place for the Board of Public Affairs is expected to be completed in approximately 30 days.

Harry Lederle, local builder, has a $4,460 contract for the room which is being built in the ground-floor furnace room on the north side of the building.

The Board of Public Affairs asked Village Council last May for permission to go ahead, and Council passed an emergency ordinance authorizing the board to advertise for bids and enter into a contract. Work began last week.

The new office will be paid for by the Board of Public Affairs. Deane Beck, chairman of the board, said Lederle's bid includes wiring, heating and plumbing and was the lowest of five received.

'Sweet Adelines' Added To Kiwanis Club Show

COLUMBIANA — A chorus of Sweet Adelines, the women's version of the Barbershop Quartet Society, has been added to the program for the Kiwanis Club's benefit show, Festival of Harmony, to be presented Saturday night in the high school auditorium.

The evening of song, which begins at 8, also will feature "The Colonials," international medalist quartet, and the award-winning East Liverpool chapter chorus of SPEBSQSA, John Golden, general chairman, said tickets are available from any Kiwanis member at the door. Also serving on the committee are James Bender, Dr. Leonard Pritchard, Dr. Russell Stryfeler and Dr. James Garslick.

GERALD T. RYAN of East Liverpool, regional director for the campaign finance committee, said the county has raised only one-third of its county, state and national quotas. He said local contributions may be sent to James McGill of 32 S. Main St.

Mrs. Fred Koehler, campaign activities chairman for the club, stressed the importance of voting the judicial ballot which she said too often is ignored.

Mrs. J. H. Hunt, president of the Columbian club, will be a member of the five-woman nominating committee which is to meet Monday in Cleveland to select candidates for office in the Ohio Federation of Republican Women.

COLUMBIANA DEMOCRATIC Women's Club will observe "guest night" at its monthly meeting Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the high school home economics room, and each member has been requested to bring a guest. The meeting will feature a campaign workshop when the club will plan its part in the Democratic rally to be held Oct. 4 in Salem and for the campaign dinner to be held Oct. 15 at Beaver Local High School. Congressman Wayne L. Hays will appear at the Salem rally, and Senator Estes Kefauver at the campaign dinner.

GOP Women Plan Future Activities

Republican candidates for city and county offices were present at Monday night's meeting of the Salem Republican Club in the Masonic Temple.

Also present were Judge John Nichols of St. Clairsville, court of appeals, and Atty. Paul W. Brown of Youngstown, candidate for the unexpired term of the late Judge Elmer Phillips, court of appeals.

Local Republican headquarters are open at 288 E. State St., where literature and information about voting are available.

Announcement was made of the county-wide Republican ox roast and rally at the county fairgrounds in Lisbon Oct. 1, when Arthur S. Fleming, United States secretary of health, education and welfare, will be principal speaker.

It also was announced that the club will participate in a "lunch and learn" luncheon Oct. 13 in the New Waterford Fish and Game Club from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mrs. Florence Morris will be guest speaker.

At the business session Monday evening, Mrs. Z. R. Taylor was installed as second vice president. The members also discussed holding a benefit project in the near future.

American-Standard Situation

Three factors stand out favorably for Salem in the American-Standard Corporation's announcement that its Kitchens Division plants in Salem and Warren are for sale as the result of a judgment rendered in the government's four-year-old anti-trust suit.

1. The judgment requires American-Standard to maintain the plants as a going business until such time as they are sold to others.

2. No change in present operations in Salem and Warren is required.

3. American-Standard will continue its efforts to improve the Division.

The lawsuit was filed soon after American-Standard purchased the former Mullins Manufacturing Co. in 1956. Mullins, long identified with the community, was founded here in 1882 by the late William H. Mullins and grew from a tiny sheet metal cornice shop to become the city's leading industry.

Steel-fabricating operations are functioning well at the factory today under American-Standard's guidance and there is every reason to believe that the high standards and rate of manufacturing will continue. Recently-secured orders have sustained employment at around 500.

The court order for Standard to divest itself of the local plant may result, eventually, in a new owner and even better days ahead for one of Salem's biggest industries.

Where All Nations Are Equal

The irony in the United Nations this week is the way its success is embarrassing the United States and especially New York City.

On hand are the world's leading political figures or their right-hand men. Every important nation, except Red China, is represented.

Total membership is inching toward 100 nations. It is axiomatic that no nation, large or small, can afford to be outside the United Nations.

This looks like the beginning of the "parliament of man"—the one place in Earth where all nations can be equal. In the U.N. General Assembly, each government represented has one vote.

There is no limit on debate.

The smallest nation has the same opportunity to exert influence through the intelligence and prestige of its spokesmen as the largest nation.

The committee system, which bears the responsibility for the thorough investigation and study that make U.N. decisions representative of the best prevailing thought, gives every government a fair chance to exert its influence.

Could it be this aspect of the United Nations that is embarrassing the United States now that the United Nations has made New York City the capital of the world?

IS THE REALIZATION that mankind is on the verge of international decisions by majority rule more than Americans are prepared to cope with, in view of the fact the realization dawned first on governments aligned with the Communist bloc?

The U.N. General Assembly is not unlike Congress, if all its members were elected the way senators are elected—two from each state, regardless of the size of the state.

Its day-to-day operation is like Congress, whose decisions are shaped by all the tricks of the parliamentary trade—log-rolling, horse-trading, threats, coercion, hope of gain, fear of loss, cupidity and misrepresentation mixed in with nobility of purpose, the ultimate salvation of mankind, human welfare, equity in

Do You Feel Any Worse?

One historical fact about presidential elections has immediate bearing on the 1960 presidential campaigns.

It explains why Sen. Kennedy keeps spelling out in detail the things he believes are wrong about the United States. There is scarcely a citizen who cannot find a sympathetic symptom of declining economic health if he will read the Kennedy list of misery and despair.

Everything from agriculture to defense must be uprooted and made over, he says. The country must be turned over to Sen. Kennedy's economic consultants and his labor union associates in January if it is to have any hope of saving its life; that's the diagnosis.

There is not a single detail of America's physical existence or state of mind that he finds satisfactory.

This is ridiculous, in view of the universally known and never-apologized-for fact that the senator and his family are up front in the brightest showcase of American opportunity. If ever a young American was caught crying with a load of bread under his arm, it's John F. Kennedy.

Why, then, does this attractive man with his unusual knowledge of the kind of world the eyes of God, man and the law and practicality.

In the "parliament of man" there would be issues lost as well as won. Proponents would become opponents and vice versa. There would be none of the sharply defined black and white issues that nations love so dearly when it is time to stir up the people. Decisions would be made by compromise. No nations would get everything it wanted.

This is still a long way off—so far it is hardly worth thinking about. But it came a little closer when Americans learned to their astonishment that the United Nations had been chosen as the meeting place for the top personalities of the Soviet bloc.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, it was evident that disintegration of the old colonial empires had thrown up for grabs so many half-formed new governments that their votes in the United Nations could become a balance of power.

For the first time, it was evident that a "parliament of man" might materialize in the U.N. complex of buildings and purposes and that it might contain a majority hostile to the United States, if the Soviet Union could arrange that eventually.

Not quite so evident, but worth thinking about, was the possibility the United States and its allies might be alert enough to do with parliamentary maneuver what has been done ever since the first Parliament met at Westminster in 1295. They might outwit their adversaries.

Henry Cabot Lodge thought of the possibility right away. He saw nothing to be afraid of as the Communist-bloc countries converged on Manhattan Island. But he impeded none of his courage to local authorities.

New York City, which once welcomed the United Nations as something that would add to its prestige, is in its worst tizzy since word was passed that Lord Howe and his redcoats had landed.

It was a drab background for the "parliament of man," if that's what is materializing this week in the United Nations. New York City did not measure up to the occasion.

he lives in emphasize things that he says are wrong, at the expense of all the things he knows are right? It is because voters they are contented with the way things are going.

Sen. Kennedy must do his best to create an illusion of despair. He must make it appear that the United States is tottering on the brink of ruin and that only a new cure can save it. This is his political lark in 1960 and he is working at it with all the skill he can muster.

The question is how many voters who have no reason to be dissatisfied can be made to feel dissatisfied by hearing repeatedly that they and their country are in desperate shape; that only a drastic remedy can save them.

Vice President Nixon, having been part of the Eisenhower administration, cannot even go through the oratorical motions of saving the country. He can say some things about it are wrong and should be made better. But it would be absurd for him to say nothing is right.

It is absurd for Sen. Kennedy to say, so, too, but he must stir up discontent in order to command votes. He is running against political history as much as he is running against Richard Nixon.

"Khrush's visit will make a mockery of all Quiet Zone signs and people will wish for the comparative peace of an old Dracula film or a day listening to a tobacco auctioneer," Mortimer continued. "But to keep cool we must block out our minds to Nikita."

It will be hard because Manhattan is a photographic, ballyhoo, show biz and VIP center. Limiting Khrush to Manhattan will do no good. We should limit all camera men to the Bronx and Brooklyn during his visit and put all English interpreters of Russian on Staten Island and confine them there.

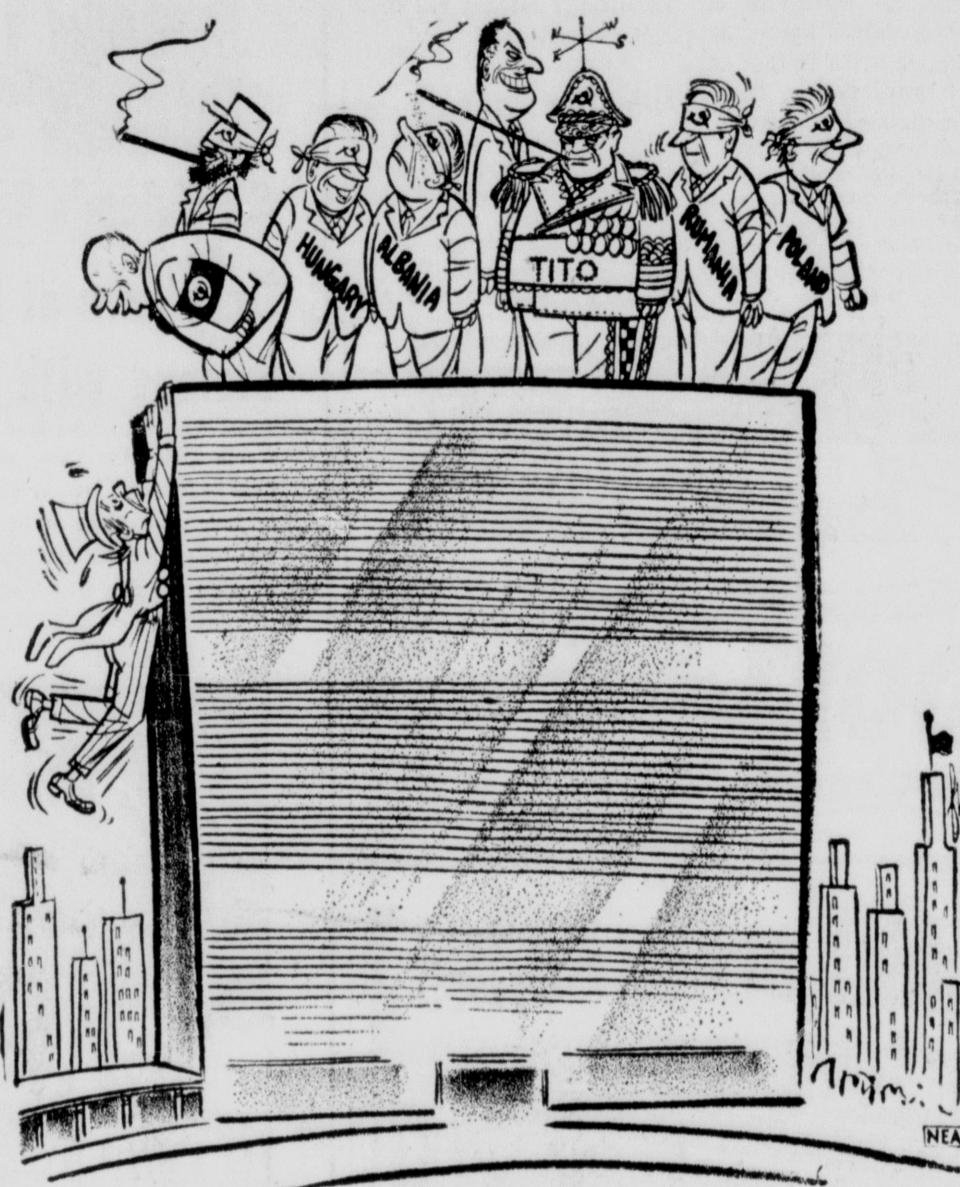

I see Eleanor Roosevelt from away off in Europe said it is silly to limit Khrush to Manhattan Island. This keeps her record for strange viewpoints up to par."

A Valid Issue?

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Since any mention of the religious question by a political commentator this year is likely to bring a shower of irrational letters from both sides, the temptation is to ignore it.

The state of mind of so many is so inflamed that rational appeals have little influence.

The fuse is ignited and the fire will run its course, with whatever benefit to either candidate yet to be determined.

As a major element determining the outcome, it may well sputter out. If so, the real issues will emerge—issues that are really important to the future of the country.

I can evaluate this controversy with a considerable amount of experience and reflection to guide me. I am old enough to have seen the matter flare up before, even before the Klan in the 1920's and the Hoover-Smith campaign in 1928.

MY RELIGIOUS inheritance and membership was Roman Catholic. My predominant religious preference and affection is for that faith.

I have heard fine ministers of that church tell young Catholics that they should not consider their religion to be a bar to their success.

"Make good," they said, "in your chosen work and you will be recognized. Don't think that everyone who opposes you or fails to give you a job is a bigot. Don't carry a religious chip on your shoulder."

I heard a Catholic bishop say on the day of my confirmation, concerning belligerency, "There are a lot of Catholics who will stand up for their faith who will not kneel down for it."

From that background, I have mind, I witnessed the campaign of 1928. It was apparent from the beginning that there was no real economic difference between Smith and Hoover.

Both were strong conservatives, Hoover a bit more liberal than Smith. Hence, with nothing to divide them on grounds of public policy, the religious difference became restricted for certain visitors—serves a useful purpose.

For one thing, the lack of reciprocity and one-sidedness of the Communists' operations in everything is dramatized.

They want the West to disarm but do not wish to disarm themselves.

They want the West to be inspected thoroughly for any violations of a disarmament agreement but refuse to guarantee any effective system of detection inside their own borders.

They restrict the movements of American officials in the Soviet Union outside of Moscow and yet want freedom themselves to move about the United States.

In addition, the Soviet head of state and his stooge, Fidel Castro, feel free to denounce everything American and to fling their invectives at will but, when the American people show their displeasure and, for security reasons, limitations are placed on the movements of the dictators from the Communist bloc, there is a loud protest from Moscow and an argument that it would be better to move the U.N. out of New York City.

Big One Coming Up

By TRUMAN TWILL

Each time I call Summer quits again, I realize it never comes up to its billing.

Take the picnic table. We have owned that table eight years. We bought the big size, thinking ahead to the happy times it would be filled to capacity. Every time it is taken apart and put away at the end of another Summer, though, I realize that putting it back together in the Spring is more a gesture of hope than anything else.

It wasn't used more than a half dozen times last Summer—too cold, or too many bugs.

The sun will shine all the time and every minute will be soaked up by ladies and gentlemen of leisure.

There won't be a weed in the lawn, a fly on the cake, or an ant in the potato salad. Every day will be Sunday and every night will be Saturday night. Joy will be unconfined. Outboard engines will never be balky. All holidays will be above blue sky overhead and happiness from coast to coast.

That will be next summer... the big one coming up, the one worth waiting for.

Nikita Gang Not Safe Without Police Protection

Many Americans today may be tempted to applaud the proposal of "Pravda," the official Communist organ in Moscow, that the United Nations be moved out of New York City. For the truth is there are citizens of this country who feel that it would be a good idea to let the U.N. operate in Geneva or somewhere else so that it will be unnecessary hereafter to receive into America such personalities as Khrushchev, Kadar and Castro.

NOTHING COULD downgrade the U.N. more than to move it away from the United States, which has been its principal supporter, financially and otherwise, since the organization was founded 15 years ago.

Many Americans, of course, would like to see America relieved of the burden of paying a third of the annual expense of the organization but there is another side of it: The United Nations provides a forum of pitless publicity before the whole world.

It is worth many times the amount spent to support the U.N. to be able to put the Soviet government on the spot repeatedly in the General Assembly.

The proceedings are widely reported throughout the world—far more coverage being given to them than to meetings abroad.

Things aren't going so well in the U.N. for the Soviets. They are dismayed by the overwhelming vote of the member nations endorsing Secretary General Hammarskjold for his actions in the Congo, which had been under attack by the Communists.

Many an isolationist who didn't favor either the League of Nations or the United Nations would have preferred that America be spared the embarrassments of acting as the host country for the international organization.

There are in America many persons whose kinsmen were murdered in Hungary or whose relatives are today enslaved behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia.

There are many persons residing in this country who are exiles from their native lands—Cuba and the Soviet Union. In view of these facts, it is remarkable how orderly the demonstrations have been.

They want the West to be inspected thoroughly for any violations of a disarmament agreement but refuse to guarantee any effective system of detection inside their own borders.

Unnoticed in the now high tension world outside some southern circles, the government quietly has set policy on Negro rights and privileges in unions. This is precedent.

This is a decision which some day may trigger a civil war between "the North" and "the South" inside labor.

It was a terse

Victor Riesel ruling this summer. It said simply that a national labor headquarters had the right to suspend and take over a union charter if the local officials did not permit Negroes the same political activities and facilities as their white fellow members.

This federal position was taken by Secretary of Labor Jim Mitchell. He ruled that the United Auto Workers headquarters in Detroit could take over UAW Memphis, Tenn., Local 988 and hold it under trusteeship because it had separate washrooms and separate drinking fountains for some 500 Negro members in its new union building.

THIS IS THE FIRST case involving the race question to come under the new Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, otherwise known as Landrum-Griffin.

"It should be made clear," said a Labor Department spokesman to me the other day in Washington, "that the law does not permit us to desegregate unions."

"We only uphold the right of the International union to enforce a non-discrimination clause in its constitution when a local violated it."

Action in this case should be traced to the fall of 1958 when Local 988 put up a new union "hall" owned by the "Building Corporation."

Shortly after it was opened, the Negro members objected officially to signs saying "Colored Men" and "Colored Women" and "White Men" and "White Women" over the rest rooms and drinking fountains.

The officers gave the Negroes their choice of any two of the four identical rest rooms. The Negroes still objected on principle and asked for fully integrated facilities.

Then the UAW, led by Walter Reuther, on Jan. 21 ordered the local to integrate the rest rooms. The white members refused.

Reuther lifted the charter, took over the building, charged the locks, removed some of the local officials and put the assets in the national office name.

INTO COURT went the case and back to the local went the building. But Reuther held the trusteeship and ruled that meetings could not be held in the hall.

The local was placed under a three-man administrative board headed by UAW Vice President Pat Greathouse.

The local appealed to Jim Mitchell, arguing that the trusteeship was illegal under the Landrum-Griffin Act. They asserted that it had not been established for the purpose authorized under Sec. 302 of the act.

The section says that a trusteeship now is for the purpose of "correcting corruption or financial malpractice, assuring the performance of collective bargaining agreements or other duties of a bar-

The Social Notebook

THE PROGRESSIVE Mothers Club held its first fall meeting on Tuesday evening at the E. State St. home of Mrs. Walter Gray.

Fifteen members answered roll call with "my vacation." The guests were Miss Sandra Gray, Mrs. Ray Abrams Jr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis.

Miss Gray gave a summary of her trip to Europe last winter, with the 76 members of the junior class of Lake Erie College in Painesville. She traced her trip from departure in New York on the Liberte to her return from England on the Queen Mary.

Each girl stayed with an adopted family in countries to which they were assigned. Miss Gray spent eight weeks with an Italian family in Pisa, speaking only Italian the entire time. While there she studied at the University of Pisa. The group also spent some time in Paris and London before returning home.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Allen Chandler.

The Oct. 18 meeting will be with Mr. David Keller of Brooklyn Ave.

THE JUNIOR LOYAL Sons and Daughters Class of Phillips Christian Church will meet Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Yeager of 228 Washington Ave.

THE LOYAL TEMPERANCE Legion will meet Saturday at 2 p.m. at the home of Robert Todd of 265 W. 14th St.

THE FATHER and son-daughter banquet of the First United Presbyterian Church was well attended Monday evening.

The invocation was given by Milton Steiner, with devotions by the assistant pastor, Rev. John Hurrie. Edward Wilhelm gave the benediction.

Ray Abrams, president of the Salem Chapter of the National Council of United Presbyterian Men, welcomed the group, and announced the nominating committee as follows: Byron Maxson, chairman, Rollin Herron, Richard Dougherty, John Olloman and Harold Babb.

Mr. Abrams reported that ladies night will be observed at the next general meeting, Nov. 15. This will be a dinner meeting and will feature election of 1961 officers for the Council.

Frank Kautzmann was named top father with five children and a guest present.

Ray Stiver and William McKay, plant chief and commercial manager of the local Ohio Bell Telephone Co., were in charge of the program. They presented the movie, "The Big Bounce" relating to the recent Echo satellite. A highlight of the program was a tour of the Ohio Bell plant for the adults and older children. The young children were entertained with cartoons, under the care of Mrs. Ray Abrams and Mrs. Bruce Milligan.

ASK ANY MAN. HE'LL TELL YOU BEAUTY is made up of many things. And he'll undoubtedly say that his ideal is the woman who is both well-groomed and well-mannered. This girl (left) makes sure that she's as well dressed from the back as she is from the front. She checks such rear-view grooming points as stocking seams and slip hem before she leaves the house. She does her major primping privately and handles a powder

Ruth Brown, Fred R. McNeal Are Married At Parsonage

Miss Ruth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Brown of MC 24, Salem, became the bride of Fred R. McNeal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNeal of 1050 Newgarden Ave., Wednesday afternoon.

The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. Harold B. Winn, pastor of the First Friends Church, with members of the immediate families present.

The bride was attired in a white sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown of Damascus, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, attended the couple. Mrs. Brown chose a beige dress and a white carnation corsage.

The mothers of the couple complemented their ensembles with corsages of white carnations. A reception for 35 relatives and friends followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. McNeal is a 1960 graduate of Lake High School in Hartville. Her husband graduated from Salem High School in 1959 and will be stationed at Pope Air Force Base in North Carolina.

Following their wedding trip, Mrs. McNeal will reside with her parents for a month after which she will join her husband.

Local Air Force Recruiter Honored

S. Sgt. Charles E. Wells, local Air Force recruiter whose permanent office is located at the Midland Bank Building, Alliance, was named top recruiter for the northern Ohio area for the month of August.

He enlisted 14 persons into the Air Force during the past month, the greatest number of enlistees to be processed in one month in the recruiting office's history.

Major Eugene Sydowski, commander of Detachment 212, Air Force Recruiting Headquarters in Cleveand, cited Sgt. Wells for his record. An award for exemplary achievement was given Sgt. Wells at an official ceremony held at the recruiting headquarters.

Sgt. Wells occupies the recruiting office at the Salem Post Office each Wednesday. He can be reached by calling ED 2-4324.

They're Just a Pleasant Memory Today

The Little Red Schoolhouses

By JAMES MURPHY

The one-room schoolhouse has almost completely disappeared from the Ohio scene. Large consolidated schools such as United Local and Beaver Local are the main reason for the discontinuance of the small rural schools.

Pupils no longer have to walk a mile or so to school every day, and the water bucket and dipper have given way to drinking fountains.

No one will deny that the modern schools are better, but still they seem to lack that aura of romance and charm which surrounds memories of the "little red schoolhouse."

HOW DESCRIPTIVE some of those school names were: Vernal Grove, Beechwood, Chestnut Grove, and Greenwood, for example.

Others, such as Buzzards Glory, Frog Pond, and Hornets Nest schools, showed considerable imagination.

The buildings were often named for the farmer who donated the land or occasionally for a teacher.

The most famous schoolteacher from Columbiana County taught in

ALL CORN ISN'T THE SAME, YOU KNOW — Small and large cob corn are among exotic plants grown at the research nursery of the Missouri State Farmers Assn. in Marshall. David Collins compares the two varieties. Breeders at the nursery constantly search for desirable characteristics to incorporate into new hybrids.

Detective Tells Court Mother Admitted Drugging Daughters

CLEVELAND (AP) — Testimony by a detective indicates Mrs. Lillian Fratantonio was concerned about authorities who questioned her about allegedly drugging her daughters into long slumbers.

As the one-room schools were abandoned, some were used for storage, while others were dismantled or left to fall down.

Quite a few, including Highland and Jersey Ridge schools, have been remodeled and converted into residences. Vernal Grove school on the Newgarden Road is another one that today is a private home.

Brush the outside of mushroom caps with melted butter and broil cavity side down; turn and put a little butter in the cavities, then finish broiling. Delicious on toast with broiled bacon.

Mueller told the Juvenile Court jury hearing the case Wednesday that after he insisted Mrs. Fratantonio remember what happened she admitted drugging Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 5. The alleged confession has since been repudiated, and Mrs. Fratantonio's lawyers say it was obtained under duress.

She is charged with mistreating the children by giving them unauthorized medicines and drugs. Bernadette had lived for about 10 months in a state of virtual suspended animation, and the case of the "sleeping beauties" mystified doctors until it was found that they were being drugged.

Mueller, calm and composed through most of the trial which started Monday, angrily rushed a Cleveland Press photographer who took her picture Wednesday without permission during a recess.

She grabbed a slide from his film holder, broke it in two and tossed it out the courtroom door after the photographer as he left.

Juvenile Judge Margaret J. Spellacy repeated her order against taking pictures without permission of the person photographed.

Mueller testified that Mrs. Fratantonio admitted the drugging when she was questioned at St.

Ann Hospital, where she went Aug. 9 to give birth to her fifth child. Describing her condition at the time, Mueller said Mrs. Fratantonio was alert, answered and asked questions and "wanted to make sure the kids weren't taken away from her."

The detective said he questioned her Aug. 13, the day after an eye dropper, six syringes and 12 hypodermic needles were turned up in a search of the home where the Fratantonios lived with her parents temporarily in a Catholic Charities children's home.

no plans to see Khrushchev as yet.

After Salam, Eisenhower meets President Tito of Yugoslavia. Years ago, the Soviets branded Tito a Communist heretic. He is now reported to be endeavoring to become the leader of the neutralist nations of the world.

But this was not all.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower cancelled a cabinet meeting Friday in order to stay overnight in New York. He may see still more heads of government Friday.

Khrushchev addresses the Assembly Friday. Communist diplomats said he will present "dramatic proposals."

Then Eisenhower returns to New York next Monday to address a Catholic charities group. He could appoint himself head of the U.S. delegation, address the assembly, and answer Khrushchev.

The wheels of diplomacy are racing in New York.

There were indications that Khrushchev would meet privately with Tito. The Soviet leader paid no attention whatever to Tito in the General Assembly hall on the opening day.

But sources close to Tito said he wants to see Khrushchev in private after the conference with Eisenhower "so as to keep a balance between both sides."

A representative of Cuba's Fidel Castro visited the Yugoslav headquarters, reportedly to set up the arrangements for a meeting between Tito and Castro.

And in London, Prime Minister Macmillan called a cabinet meeting to decide whether he should fly to New York to address the assembly.

Eisenhower was the second of four speakers on today's schedule.

He was preceded by Horacio Lafer, foreign minister of Brazil, and followed by Zenarto Kosaka, foreign minister of Japan, and then to Tito.

Yugoslav diplomats said Tito wanted to set forth his ideas on a wide range of cold war issues—peaceful cooperation, disarmament, the Congo and colonial issues, undeveloped countries, and the role of the United Nations in the swift-changing picture.

Khrushchev kept busy Wednesday—talking with reporters from the balcony of the Soviet diplomatic headquarters on Park Avenue. He appeared twice, once in his shirt sleeves.

He talked about "American culture," disarmament and the major league baseball races, pooh poohed reports of a dispute between himself and the Communist Chinese leader, Mao Tze-tung, complained that he is "under house arrest," and kidded his foreign minister Andrei Gromyko.

When demonstrators booed him, he said through an interpreter: "That is America—the supreme culture. Have you ever seen anything like this in our country?"

He said he intends to go to Cuba "as soon as we come to terms with Fidel Castro about the travel time."

2 Sought In Sharon Burglary Surrender

YOUNGSTOWN — Two men sought by police for questioning in a Sharon, Pa., clothing store burglary, gave themselves up Wednesday.

Joseph Drago of Cleveland, called police from Austintown, where he was later picked up. A few hours later, Phil Mainor, 35, of Youngstown, called the Mahoning County sheriff's office. He was arrested at motel on U.S. 422 near the Ohio-Pennsylvania border.

Four other men were arrested Saturday in a police trap at Sharon as they loaded $27,000 worth of clothing in a truck behind the Shontz & Myers Co. The four have been arraigned on charges of burglary, conspiracy and attempting to bribe a policeman.

They are William D. Merrell, 27, of Cleveland; Joseph Weitzen, 33, of Farrell, Pa.; George M. Florea, 40, of Canton, and Lindbergh Jones, 33, of Lowellville.

Driver Fined, Another Forfeits In Lisbon

LISBON — John A. Tenzek, 45, RD 2, Lisbon, cited by the State Highway Patrol for driving left of center, was fined $10 and costs Wednesday by Judge J. L. MacDonald in Southwest District Court.

Harold L. Busby, 24, Coshocton, arrested for passing at the crest of a hill, forfeited a $20 appearance bond.

400 At E. Palestine Attend PTO Meeting

EAST PALESTINE — Four hundred and fifty persons attended the opening meeting of the Parent-Teachers Organization Wednesday night in the high school auditorium.

President Russell Patton was chairman for the program which included introduction of teachers and principals by Supt. T. R. Hersh.

Principal James Vocature explained the Health tuberculosis detection test which will be used in the schools here this year.

Game Protector Doubts Alligator Was Seen

County Game Warden R. L. Lide, commenting on repeated reports that an alligator had been seen in a creek near the Salem Country Club, said he doubted that a gator actually had been seen.

"It could have been a log or even a beaver floating downstream," he said.

"If a prankster did dump one in, he'd better get it out before cold weather arrives," Lide added.

No License, Hunter Of Squirrels Is Fined

Patrick Locarell, 20, of 168 Tidone, Youngstown, arrested Saturday by Columbiana County Game Protector R. L. Lide for hunting squirrels without a license, was fined $20 and costs at a hearing before County Judge Earl Spalding at East Palestine.

The man was arrested near Elkton.

10 Women Attend Pre-Natal Class

LISBON — Ten mothers-to-be attended the second session of a six-class, pre-natal course Wednesday afternoon in Columbiana County Health Department rooms at the courthouse.

Mrs. Violet Peterson, staff nurse and course instructor, led a discussion on "diet and nutrition."

Mr. Frank McKarns of Lisbon's Welcome Wagon Club was hostess.

The subject next Wednesday will be "labor and delivery." A new film strip, "Having a Baby," will be shown.

Unity, Negley Pupils Receive Physicals

LISBON — Columbiana County Health Department gave physical examinations and immunizations Tuesday and Wednesday to kindergarten pupils at Unity and Negley schools.

Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, gave this a k-down:

Unity — 29 physicals, 10 immunizations, 2 polio shots and 2 vaccinations.

Negley — 22 physicals, 8 immunizations, 3 polio shots and 4 vaccinations.

Horseman Draws Attention In Lisbon

LISBON — A man on a horse stopped at Crosser's Diner at 1:30 a.m. today.

Witnesses said he ordered some hamburgers for himself and a couple of slices of bread for the steed, tied to a parking meter.

He was uncommunicative and continued his journey. A motorist arriving from Salem an hour later said he saw the rider, apparently asleep in the saddle, along Route 45, near Salem.

The best guess is that the man bought the horse last night at Elkton auction and was riding home.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday.

seph's body had been taken to the coroner's office, because he and his wife didn't have money for funeral services.

"I spent five days and nights outside the coroner's office," he said, "as near as I could get to Joseph."

Detectives traced Lopez and arrested him. In the meantime, services had been arranged. A couple Mrs. Lopez met in the hospital while Joseph lay dying raised $50 and called a mortuary to see if that would buy a funeral.

The mortician heard the story and agreed to provide the funeral arrangements free.

Pomona police heard Lopez' story and agreed to let him at.

Lisbon Lions Hear Talk by Zone Chairman

LISBON — Over 40 Lisbon Lions, wives and guests welcomed Dr. John Snively of Minerva, zone chairman, on his official visit to the local club Wednesday evening at the cottage.

Dr. Snively spoke on the club's motto "We Serve", and congratulated the Lisbon organization on its achievements.

Patrolman Richard Delargrange of State Highway Patrol Post 15 showed a film, "Signal 30".

Through the efforts of Harry Longenecker, a new 50-star flag which had flown over the capitol was presented to the club from Rep. Wayne L. Hays. President Lester Pribble gave Dr. Snively the honor of placing the flag on his staff, and Dean Senanefes led the singing of "America".

The September board meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday in the cottage. There will be no meeting next Wednesday, but members are to meet on the square to help set up for the club's fourth annual fall festival, Sept. 29-Oct. 1.

Dump Ordinance At Leetonia Gets Second Reading

LEETONIA — An ordinance regulating and limiting the use of the village dump passed its second reading when Village Council met Wednesday night.

Council approved the purchase of a spreader to be mounted on the street department truck. The spreader, which will cost $770 will eliminate the extra man on the back of the truck during winter ashing. It can be used for spreading salt, slag and other loose materials.

A delegation from N. Elm St. was present to hear a report of village surveyor, James Allen, concerning the paving of their street. Mr. Allen estimated the cost of the entire project, which includes 30-foot pavement, curbs, storm sewers and sidewalks, is approximately $14,770. This would be an assessment of $12 per foot on sidewalk or $9.25 without sidewalk.

No action was taken on the project. Residents from the street and Council members planned a trip to nearby communities to study street improvements in which concrete curbs were not used. Construction of curbs seems to be the stumbling block.

Khrushchev, at the moment, stands to lose more than a round in the cold war as a result. He may have severely damaged a long-term campaign.

Obnoxious Remarks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks people on a diet get tired of hearing: "Haven't you been putting on a little weight lately?" "Hi, fatty." "And then you pour in half a cup of sugar, add the whipped cream and—"

"Actually, in your case, it's probably not so much fat as it is a matter of posture. Why don't you just try pulling in your stomach? You say it already is pulled in? Oh!"

"On you it looks good."

"Goodness, how I envy you. No, I really mean it. I eat, and eat, and eat and never gain an ounce."

"My cousin goes to a Hindu who tells him that losing weight is simple—if you just tune your mind to the infinite. Then you get all about hunger pangs."

"You mean that's all the calories you're allowed for a whole day? Why, in the old days you used to spill more than that on your necktie during lunch."

"Have you tried the lemon juice and aspirin diet? I hear it works wonders—and you can eat all the aspirin you want."

"Talk to him about baseball, Khrushchev, the atom bomb or anything else at all, but don't mention food."

"Have another carrot. Oh, go on, take two."

"My friend ate nothing but that fat people generally are sufgrapefruit juice and marmalade. And in less than three weeks he dropped two whole pounds."

"So what if you are a little overweight? I had an uncle who weighed 236 pounds and he lived to be 90. Of course, he was bedfast the last 25 years, but on the other hand—"

"I know you must be sick and tired of cucumbers. Why don't you try for a little more variety? How about a nice radish, for example?"

"Yes, you still take a size 16 collar. But if I were you I'd try a size 17 this time—not that you need it, but it'll just give you a feeling of added comfort."

"Have you heard about the new all-carbohydrate diet?"

"Psychologically, I understand you must be sick and tired of cucumbers. Why don't you try for a little more variety? How about a nice radish, for example?"

"Yes, you still take a size 16 collar. But if I were you I'd try a size 17 this time—not that you need it, but it'll just give you a feeling of added comfort."

"Oh, don't tell me you're on a diet, too! Now I've heard every-

Woman Telephone Pest Is Fined $500

CLEVELAND (AP) — Over 18 years Mrs. Viola Dunning, 65, of Mayfield Heights, made thousands of nuisance telephone calls to neighbors with whom she feuded when she lived in Cleveland Heights. But she never said a word—simply hanging up after they had answered the ring—often in early morning hours.

On her plea of guilty to a charge of telephone harassment in Cleveland Heights Municipal Court Wednesday she was fined $500, with $250 suspended, and placed on probation for six months. Judge Bernard Ostrovsky suspended a 30-day jail sentence.

'Six of her former neighbors complained and decided she was the source of annoying calls they'd been receiving. Mrs. Dunning denied it, but when a directory of names and telephone numbers was found at her home, she admitted making the calls, police said.

Child Victim of Stray Bullet

Cubans Battle; Girl, 9, Killed

NEW YORK (AP)—A 9-year-old Venezuelan girl, struck in the back by a stray bullet in a fight between supporters and opponents of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, died today in St. Clare's Hospital.

The girl, Magdalena Urdaneta of Caracas, was dining with her tourist parents in a restaurant Wednesday when a gang of Castro sympathizers burst in. An anti-Castroite, Louis Rodriguez, 25, was wounded in the shoulder.

Beer bottles flew, fists swung, and tables and chairs were overturned during the melee. It was touched off after a pro-Castro man sighted five anti-Castro men who came in to order sandwiches at the El Prado Restaurant, on 8th avenue near 51st street.

A man was arrested today in connection with the free-for-all, and another man was being hunted as the actual gun-wielder.

The pro-Castro man used a telephone in the restaurant, and minutes later about a dozen adherents of Castro appeared—and the battle began.

Rodriguez, whose wound was not serious, listed his home as Brooklyn. Two other anti-Castro victims who required hospital treatment were Francisco Pereira and Humberto Triana, both 23, who said they are Cuban exiles.

here from Miami. They were beaten over the head. Three anti-Tito demonstrators were arrested Wednesday night after shouting insults through bull horns from a Fifth Avenue bus as it passed the Yugoslav U.N. headquarters.

Later, six other anti-Tito demonstrators were seized near the Yugoslav residence. Police said they were throwing firecrackers.

In Harlem Wednesday night two men, one a Castro supporter and the other anti-Castro, were arrested.

Lisbon Social Notes

The Christian Youth Fellowship of the First Christian Church held a reorganization meeting after a summer recess Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stockman of N. Beaver St. Fourteen young people of high school age enjoyed a program of "brain storming."

The meeting closed with a Friendship Circle.

The group will meet each Sunday evening. Next week old members will be recognized and new members welcomed.

On October 16 a film showing and a spaghetti dinner are scheduled before the program at the church.

"On the Threshold" was the Rickenbach of Canton was the inspecting officer.

Mrs. Marie Cosma, president, was in charge. Mrs. Mary Dixon was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Agnes Ford, canteen chairman, reported 10 boys had left for the service.

Mrs. Jean Evans won the special prize. Lunch was served by Mrs. Sue Campsey, Mrs. Ollie Zitz, Mrs. Cosma and Miss Katherine McKee.

At the men's meeting Wednesday night, plans were made for a membership party for both the VFW and the women's auxiliary.

Mrs. Hazel Jamison was hostess to the TOC Club Tuesday night. The group had dinner at Shot's Restaurant in Youngstown and returned to Mrs. Jamison's home on E. High St. Officers were elected for the year, with Miss Esther Stackhouse as president and Miss Nellie Gillis, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held Oct. 18.

THE LISBON GARDEN Club met Tuesday night with Mrs. F.C. Davis of N. Market St.

Mrs. Edwin Goodballe presented a paper on "Lilies Command Attention". Members enjoyed a plant exchange. Mrs. Vincent Judge, president, presided.

The next meeting, Oct. 18, will be held at the Judge home when new officers will be installed.

The Inez Marsden Circle of the Methodist Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Donald Myers of Pritchard Ave.

Mrs. Pe'er Cibula, president, conducted the business and led the devotions, giving a review of H. Stanley Bloom's painting, "The Nazarene".

Programs for the coming year were explained by Mrs. Blair Lewis.

The circle will meet next on Oct. 11 when it will join with the WSCS at the church.

A Halloween party will be held Oct. 24 with Mrs. Sally Hurd and Mrs. Vince Weyant in charge of the program. Mrs. Duane Bruey and Mrs. Cibula will be hostesses.

MRS. JIMMIE DEEMER of Lisbon-Columbiana Road entertained members of the Trimonite Club at her home Monday night. Most of the members are from Fredericktown and East Liverpool area and former neighbors of Mrs. Deemer. The evening was spent folding cancer bandages for the East Liverpool Cancer Society.

Mrs. Raymond Wilhelm spent Sunday in Louisville at the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pike.

Names were drawn for a Christmas exchange and dinner at Colonial House in Youngstown with the date for the party pending.

Mrs. Clarence Wolfe of Fredericktown will entertain Oct. 10 with an old fashioned ice-cream party.

Visiting to End Soon
At Lisbon Museum

LISBON—The Historical Society will receive visitors two more weekends at its Old Stone House Museum on E. Washington St., one block from the square. The visiting season will end Sunday, Oct. 2.

Over 425 guests have gone through the old tavern—restored in colonial manner—during the summer.

Local residents have donated 36 additional historical articles, including Thomas Pottery China, Ohio annual register of 1835, old clay sewer pipe, 1800 tin lantern, 1830 oaken bucket, 1840 four-poster bed, bound volume of "Aurora" newspaper (1861) published in New Lisbon, 1895 wedding dress, 1800 spice grinder, Glenn Walker's collection of Indian relics, and the Arter collection of harness tools. Many photographs, some still to be identified, have been donated.

A goal of 175 has been set for the service. Notices of the special service, containing pieces of a picture, were sent to the church members. If all attend, the pieces will form a picture of the church.

Joint PTA meetings were announced for Oct. 10 and Nov. 14 at the junior high school, at which time Supt. Paul Smith will speak on "what do we want from our schools?" and "how do we get what we want?" A report of the school budget will also be presented.

Mr. Roher was guest speaker for TRY SALEM NEWS WANT ADS the evening, using "Parents and School Getting Closer Together" as his theme.

A brief talk was also given by Martin Catlos, a city fireman.

Lunch was served by the officers, with Mrs. Lippitt as social chairman and Mrs. Nick Yakubek, room mother chairman, assisting.

Open house is planned for Nov. 21 from 7 to 8:30 p.m., at which time parents are invited to visit their children's classrooms and meet their teachers. A brief business session is scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Salem Quakers Seek Third Straight Win Over Ravenna

Neither Team Is Aerial Minded; Both Like to Grind Out Yardage

Coach Morton Says Dave Edling, Al Lesch Will Break Into Lineup

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

The Salem Quakers and Ravenna Ravens, two firm believers in Woody Hays' four yards and a cloud of dust philosophy, will attempt to grind each other up on the Ravenna gridiron Friday starting at 8 p.m.

Salem will be looking for its third straight shutout victory of the season. Ravenna dropped its opener, 20-14, to Akron Kenmore last week, fumbling away the ball six times, including three times within Kenmore's 10-yard line.

Quaker Coach Blaine Morton says he plans to open with the same lineup that faced Akron Hoban and Leetonia. Guard Bob Elsner has recovered from the leg injury which kept him out of much of last week's game.

IN AN EFFORT to add speed to the backfield, Coach Morton says he expects to have Dave Edling, 145, junior, share left half back duties with regular Chuck Hertel. To help beef up the line, 222-pound senior Al Lesch is expected to get in his first game this season at right tackle where Jim Kaiser has been holding sway in respectable fashion.

Jim Schuster, a defensive standout in the first two games, may see more action on offense this week. Schuster weighs 165 pounds, compared to 135 for Fred Flory who has been doing most of the ball snapping for the Quakers.

Butch Crawford, the team's top junior, will see considerable action at tackle. Junior John Panizzotti and senior Tony Chitea will continue at their spots in the defensive backfield.

Coach Randy Buchman of Ravenna has one big question mark in his starting lineup and that is at halfback where Miles "Tyke" Friend may not be able to play against the Quakers. Friend injur

Their Youngest Team In 15 Years

Browns Open Season Carrying 12 Rookies

CLEVELAND (AP) — This year's Cleveland Browns are the youngest and least experienced team in the club's 15-year history. They average a shade over 25 in age and only 22 years of National Football League experience.

There are 12 rookies on the 38-man roster, and of the remaining players only 19 were with the club last year. The other seven were acquired in trades.

To get the idea how Coach Paul Brown has moved along with his rebuilding program since he player.

cided to go after youth and speed, compare this year's club with the 1958 Browns. That squad had only seven rookies, averaged a full year older at 26 and had pro football experience of four years per player.

The bulk of the club's experience and age is concentrated in six men—two of them acquired in trades since last season.

The veteran Browns are half-back Ray Renfro, 30, and linebacker Walt Michaels, 31, each in his ninth season, and tackles Bob Gain, 31, and Mike McCormack, 30, each in his eighth.

End Gern Nagler, obtained from Pittsburgh, is 28 and in his eighth pro season; and Sam Baker, 30, year-old kicking specialist who was with Washington last season, is starting his sixth NFL campaign.

The 31-year-old drag strip operator ended his current series of speed runs after reaching only 305 miles an hour in one spin Tuesday. Thompson said little bubbles of salt forming on the 12-mile straightaway course cut his traction in half and caused the wheels to spin independently.

Thompson and four other drivers tried this year to break the speed record of 394.1 m.p.h. set here in 1947 by the late John Cobb of England.

Bill Bennett of the Chipmunks in the Bliss Co. Nite Turn League posted the best series, 581, with games of 188-201-191. Bennett was followed by R. Senior, 566-212; and Jim Grindie, 566-201.

Others who hit in the high 500's were Ed Westphal, 545-204; Art Price, 542-208; and Ken Sharow, 530-215. Carl Bailey's big 243 was high single game for the afternoon. He had a 558 series.

The Chipmunks had high actual wood 899, and also high handicap, 1014. They had the high actual three game set, 2578, and with handicap, 2923.

This loop was recently organized and has six teams of the E. W. Bliss Co. night shifts.

Schmid of Engineering No. 2 took top honors in Bliss Day Turn League last night with a 572. His 222 single game was also high. Joe Good of the Tool Room posted a 566-221. Cody had a 202 game. Beck had 561-204; Mike Ulrichney, 556-190; and Hough, 542-210.

The Timer's team had high actual score of 2568 as well as gross, 2685. The Yard team posted high single actual of 907 and also gross with 1007.

Bucs Near Title As Cards Lose

Leaders Play Pair Today With Chicago

By The Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Pirates get a chance to eliminate the Milwaukee Braves and reduce their magic number over St. Louis to two today in a bid for their first National League pennant since 1927.

They play a doubleheader with the Chicago Cubs in the day's only major league action. The Bucs have won four in a row, sweeping twin bills from Cincinnati and Philadelphia.

Pittsburgh reduced its clinching combination to four although idle Wednesday, when the Los Angeles Dodgers knocked off the second place Cardinals 5-3 in 12 innings. Any combination of Pittsburgh victories and St. Louis defeats totaling four locks it up for the Bucs.

The number is two over the third place Braves, who delayed the inevitable as Warren Spahn won his 21st with a 3-1 decision over Cincinnati in the only other NL game scheduled.

Singles by pinch-hitter Duke Snider, John Roseboro and Maury Wills gave the Dodgers two runs in the 12th at St. Louis after the Cardinals had tied it 3-all on Bob Nieman's solo pinch home run in the ninth. Don Landrum homered for the Cards' first run, then tripped and scored the other.

Southpaw Johnny Podres, who gave up Nieman's homer, was the winner for a 13-2 record in his first relief appearance of the year. Ron Kline (4-9) was the loser in relief.

Spahn (21-9), who pitched his first no-hitter in his last start, gave up seven hits in this one, but did not walk a man.

Hank Aaron drove in two of Milwaukee's runs, capping a two-run third with a sacrifice fly, and then belting his 38th home run in the sixth off loser Jim O'Toole.

White Sox Take Over 2nd Place

Yanks Dump Senators, 10-3; Need 5 Wins to Grab Pennant

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Writer

The New York Yankees are within five victories of clinching the American League pennant with nine games to play—thanks to a little power, a lot of pitching and enough luck to break the bank in Las Vegas.

Since taking charge with that four-game, weekend sweep over Baltimore, the Yankees have rolled up 12 runs in two games and have won both—but only two of the runs, both homers by Mickey Mantle, were earned.

The Yankees took a 10-3 victory over Washington Wednesday with the help of nine unearned runs on four Senator errors.

It was the sixth straight win for the Yanks, and their 10th in 12 games, pushing them into a 4½-game lead over Chicago. The defending champion White Sox, who have eight games left, took over second place by beating Kansas City 7-2 Wednesday night after Boston had spilled Baltimore to third, beating the Orioles 4-1 behind Ike Delock's three-hit pitching, in the only other AL games scheduled.

Any combination of New York victories and White Sox defeats totaling five clinches a 10th flag for the Yankees' Casey Stengel, who would tie John McGraw as the majors' all-time top pennant winner. The magic number is four over the Orioles, who trail by five with seven to play.

The Nevada bookmakers have conceded the flag to the Yankees, and have awarded the National League pennant to Pittsburgh, while making New York a 5-7 favorite over the Pirates in the World Series. The idle Bucs reduced their magic number to four when Los Angeles spilled second place St. Louis 5-3 in 12 innings.

Mantle's 37th home run, in the fourth inning, was the Yankees' first hit off loser Pete Ramos (11-16) of the Nats, who left when New York scored seven runs, all unearned, in the fifth.

Whitey Ford (11-9) was the winner, after giving up a solo home run by Earl Battey and trailing 3-0. It was the seventh consecutive time the southpaw veteran,

After Herron's knot the game at 3-all in the top of the fifth, Shaffer's put the fray in the victory column with two markers in the bottom of the fifth and three more in the sixth.

The two teams will play the third and deciding game at Kelley Field at 3 p.m. Sunday. Herron's, the regular season champs, had won the first playoff fray, 5-0. Shaffer Ford was the second place club during regular season play.

Expanded to 13 Teams

NFL Kicks Off 41st Grid Season Friday

By MIKE RATHETT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The new-look National Football League, confronted with competition at the turnstiles for the first time in a decade, inaugurates its 41st season Friday night as the St. Louis Cardinals invade Los Angeles for the official opener with the Rams.

Hopeful of cracking its attendance record for the ninth consecutive year despite the emergence of the competing American league the NFL has expanded to 13 teams with the addition of the Dallas Cowboys, and shifted the Cardinals' franchise from Chicago in an attempt to strengthen the circuit.

The Cowboys, coached by former New York assistant Tom Landry, will raise the curtain on their NFL-stocked club Saturday night in the Cotton Bowl against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

With the St. Louis-Los Angeles and Dallas-Pittsburgh games getting the spotlight treatment on separate days, the NFL pushes its main cast of stars on stage Sunday with a four-game program.

The Washington Redskins will meet the defending champion Colts in Baltimore, Eastern Division titlist New York is at San Francisco, Cleveland tackles the Eagles at Philadelphia and Green Bay hosts the Bears, now the lone Chicago representative.

Under the 13-club arrangement — Minneapolis-St. Paul is scheduled to balance the league in 1961 — one team will be idle each week.

Detroit sits out the first one.

The well-established and financially successful NFL will be in direct competition with the fledgling American league in four cities — Dallas, Los Angeles, New York and San Francisco, where the Oakland AFL club will play its home games.

Still the NFL has had tremendous advance ticket sales, and commissioner Pete Rozelle figures another attendance mark will be shattered. Last year 3,140,409 turned out for the 72 league games.

Buford, Armstrong Fight Winds Up In 10-Round Draw

CHICAGO (AP) — The next fight for Ernest Buford of Memphis, whose manager is Mary Jenson, may be with Henry Hank, a ranking middleweight.

"Each has beaten each other once and I think a rubber match would be a good one," said Jenson, who also pilots Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Assn middleweight king. "But when, or where, it could be is a question."

Buford, 155, and Ace Armstrong of Elizabeth, N. J., 1575, fought to a 10-round draw in Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

It was the next to last nationally televised Wednesday night fight in the series that started when Bob Olson beat Australian Dave Sands in 1951.

The series will end next Wednesday in Chicago Stadium with a 10-round heavyweight encounter between Cleveland Williams and Harold Johnson.

Probation Violator Sentenced to Prison

LISBON—William Raymond Lewis is 42, who disappeared after being granted probation for forgery nearly two years ago, was sentenced Wednesday in Common Pleas Court to one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard revoked probation after the state produced evidence showing that Lewis failed to make restitution, pay court costs and report to the probation officer regularly.

Lewis was picked up last week by Dayton authorities on an auto theft warrant filed by Piqua police. Evidence being inconclusive, he was released Sunday at Dayton to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan and Probation Officer Richard Rose.

Lewis was working on a Pennsylvania farm in August, 1958, when he forged his employer's name to an $18 check and tried to cash it at a tavern in East Liverpool. The proprietor would not cash it but gave Lewis $5 on the strength of it. Lewis was arrested next day when the forgery was discovered.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Feels Like a King

Dear Ann Landers: My husband thinks you are God's gift to American husbands. Me!—I'd like to wring your neck.

Several months ago you said a wife should iron the bedsheet—so I started to iron them. That bedsheet controversy ran over into the ironing of shorts. You said if a husband wants his shorts ironed, to iron 'em. So my big slob, who never knew that shorts could be ironed, showed me the column and said, "Ann thinks you should iron my shorts from now on."

I was pretty burned up, in fact I even considered sending you a bundle of his shorts to iron but I decided to be a sport and go along with it.

NOW you come up with the insane advice that a wife should pick up after her husband. If you will tell me WHY an able-bodied man should get this kind of service I'll shut up.—LIVID VIV.

Dear Viv: I'm going to let everybody have his (or her) say and then I'll have MINE. Please stick with me.—ANN.

Dear Male: Thanks for those kind words. The women are ALL mad but for every female enemy I've made a male friend. I figure it's a wash. More later. Read on.—ANN.

Dear Ann: I'll bet anything your husband has a butler who picks up after him. If YOU had to do the picking up you'd probably yell like the rest of us.—ME.

Dear You: Don't bet anything you need. There's NO butler around here. I pick up after my husband and figure it's little enough to do for a man who has done so much for me.

Jealousy Shows

Dear Ann: I'm a married man whose wife went to work in a plant three years ago. She is a good person but the type that everyone takes into his confidence and tells his troubles to.

The other day she was telling me about a man who has a coffee break with her a few times a week. This man is unhappy in his marriage and said to my wife: "If I could meet a woman like you, I'd leave my old battle ax tomorrow."

It made me mad. Do you think this is any way for a married man to talk to my wife? Should I suggest that she quit her job over there? I don't need THIS kind of trouble—HUSBAND IN JEOPARDY.

Dear Husband: I can't see that you have any trouble but you could sure whip up some in a hurry if you worked at it.

GEMS TO MATCH — A watch set in eye-shaped diamond clip and ruby-pearl brooch in form of lips are displayed in London. The jewelry was designed by Salvador Dali.

If your wife had any romantic notions about this man she surely wouldn't be wishing you up. The fact that she speaks openly is a healthy indication.

Asking her to quite her job on the evidence presented in your letter would make you look like a jealous sorehead and it may give her ideas she never had before.

Dear Ann Landers: A friend of mine who is very good at palmistry and reading tea leaves says dreams have a special meaning. She offered to interpret my dreams for a fee. She can't do it for nothing because she belongs to an association and it is against the rules.

My common sense tells me that it's all a lot of humbug. What is your opinion? — BEAUTIFUL DREAMER.

Dear Beautiful: Palmistry and tea leaf reading are humbug. Dreams, however, can give us a clue to our real feelings. But interpretation of dreams requires professional training and unless your friend is a psychiatrist, she is not qualified.

Faith Renewed

Dear Ann: I was deeply touched by the letter from "Bitter 16" who wrote in behalf of all wallflowers.

All young boys are not selfish and thoughtless, Ann. In June I had an experience that renewed my faith in the younger generation.

I was a parent on duty at a all-night graduation party. My job was running the photo concession, taking "instant pictures" of the kids on their last dates as high school students. Our big problem was the repeaters—those who wanted to come back again and again.

Along toward morning I noticed one young fellow kept returning for a picture but he always had a different girl. He was a "Big Wheel," honor student, athlete and perennial office holder.

The fifth time he showed up I gave him the usual spiel, "I think you've had your picture taken with nearly every girl here. This is where we call a halt."

Afterward he slipped around to see me alone.

"If you don't mind," he said, "I'd like to bring a few more girls around for a picture. Some girls here don't have dates and I'd like to see that they get a souvenir picture, at least."

This young man had been paying for the pictures out of his own pocket. After that, his pictures were one me.—JUST A DAD.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Readers Write About Worms, Cathartics

A New Jersey mother writes me I favor the "prevalent idea that it is good to have a cleaning out every week or two with a large dose of a strong cathartic." If the modern treatment with worm-killers or worm-expellers is so darned effective, is it necessary to go through all this hocus-pocus of handscrubbing and clothes-boiling?"

And, without awaiting an answer, she concludes: "It's a shame the way the medical profession hedges on this subject."

While I do not presume to be an apologist for the entire medical profession, I'll be glad to explain the necessity for the "hocus-pocus" referred to.

INDEED, THE INSULT conferred on the intestinal tract actually accomplishes nothing. For the catharsis of the day is followed by the constipation of tomorrow. And so on, as the saying goes, to infinity.

Dear Reader: Dr. Hyman appreciates your comments and questions but regrets that the heavy volume of his mail doesn't permit him to answer each individual letter or post card. However, he will comment in columns like the above upon matters of general or unusual interest.

The logical thinking behind this program is the same as that which leads the housewife to perform her domestic chores daily instead of expecting a single dusting, cleaning or washing to last a lifetime.

AN ANONYMOUS writer, who omits even her initials lest her "bridge friends recognize her as the questioner," wants to know if

Dr. H. T. Hyman

Except under the most unusual and compelling circumstances, I would no more take or order what you call a strong cathartic than I would favor application of a powerful irritant to any other delicate membrane such as the eye.

Dear Reader: Dr. Hyman appreciates your comments and questions but regrets that the heavy volume of his mail doesn't permit him to answer each individual letter or post card. However, he will comment in columns like the above upon matters of general or unusual interest.

The logical thinking behind this program is the same as that which leads the housewife to perform her domestic chores daily instead of expecting a single dusting, cleaning or washing to last a lifetime.

However, they do not prevent future invasions and it is essential to combine active with preventive actions.

College Crowd Cheers Sweets From Home

"Oh, great! A box from home I hope it's something to eat!"

He still eats, your world-beater who entered college just days ago to become a doctor, lawyer, bridge builder or student of humanities. Sure the school feeds him, but it doesn't taste or smell like home.

That's why ever-hungry youth can hardly wait to cut the string on a package of cookies, cakes or candy from the family. It's that tantalizing, home-baked aroma that alerts the taste-buds and promises to satisfy the inner man.

Here are recipes for those goodies to put in the mail. These recipes have been selected because they ship well and stay nice and fresh if snugly wrapped in metal foil or waxed paper.

If wrapped sweets are tucked in a cellophane bag, this makes it much easier to store them at the dormitory. But, then, they don't last long enough to make storage a problem.

Easy Fudge Cup Cakes

1/4 cup shortening, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sour milk.

Melt shortening and chocolate together. Turn into a mixing bowl and add sugar, water, pure vanilla extract and soda. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Stir into the chocolate mixture. Beat in egg and milk with a slotted spoon or wire whip. (The batter is thin, but do not add more flour.)

Turn into 2-inch cup cake or muffin pans lined with cup cake paper. Bake in a pre-heated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Cool and frost with Browned Butter frosting. Yields 12 cup cakes.

Vanilla Dream Bars

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine.

Combine flour and sugar. Add butter or margarine and mix until very crumbly. Pat into an ungreased 13x9x2-inch pan. Bake in a pre-heated slow oven (325 deg. F.) 10 minutes. Remove from oven and cool in pan.

Topping

2 eggs, separated, 1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 cup angel flake coconut.

Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored and combine with sugar and pure vanilla extract. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and add. Stir in nuts and coconut. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into the mixture. Pour over the baked crust and spread uniformly. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 25 minutes. Remove from oven, cool and cut into bars. Store in a tightly closed box. Yield 24 bars.

Orange Gingerbread

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon baking soda, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ginger, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ cup butter or margarine, ½ cup sugar, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons grated orange rind, ½ cup dark molasses, ½ cup boiling water.

Method: Grease the bottom of a baking pan (9 by 9 by 1½ inches); line bottom with waxed paper; grease paper. Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt, ginger and cinnamon. Cream butter and sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly; beat in a time. Add orange rind. Stir molasses and boiling water together.

Pickles, because they are prepared with an acid liquid, should not be made in an iron utensil; the iron kettle is likely to darken them.

Peach Cobbler Popular Dessert

The bountiful 1960 peach crop will be recalled with pleasure long after the trees are bare, thanks to the many homemakers who freeze or can the fruit.

And what better way for peaches to appear on the table than as a tempting, popular peach cobbler?

Peach Cobbler

2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1 cup sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg, 4 cups sliced peaches, 1 cup water, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon grated lemon rind, 2

Vegetable Gettogether

Ingredients: 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 large onion (cut into thin strips), 1 pound (2 medium-size) straightneck yellow squash (unpeeled and sliced in thin rounds), 3 medium-sized tomatoes (each cut into 8 wedges), 1 green pepper (cut into thin strips), 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon white pepper, 2 teaspoons sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon ground allspice.

Method: in large skillet cook on flame until golden in 2 tablespoons of the butter. Add remaining butter, remaining vegetables and the seasonings. Mix well.

Cover and simmer, stirring a few times, until squash is tender—about 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Either lemon or lime wedges may be served with a seafood cocktail, tomato or tomato-vegetable juice.

Different and good: cook chicken livers in butter and use them to top portions of spaghetti and tomato sauce; pass grated Parmesan or Romano cheese.

Duckling stored in a freezer should be held for no longer than 9 to 12 months.

Save the liquid from sweet mixed pickles and use in slaw.

is most enjoyable when viewed beginning at the beginning and proceeding to the end. I realize this is a revolutionary concept but we have discovered that PSYCHO is unlike most motion pictures and does not improve when run backwards. Therefore, we will not allow you to cheat yourself. So do not expect to be admitted to the theatre after the start of each performance of the picture.
